

I am totally against allowing a few corporation to own the public airways. The free expression of opinions must be maintained. Too many radio and tv stations are owned by a few men.